

Dwayne Dixon Professional Education Scholarship

Scholarship for IATA student members pursuing a degree in athletic training at a CAATE-accredited program.

Description

The $1000 scholarship is named after the late Dwayne Dixon and awarded to IATA student members who are pursuing an entry level degree in athletic training from a CAATE-accredited program.

Criteria

1. Must be enrolled as a full-time student at an Indiana CAATE-accredited entry-level athletic training program.
2. Must have one semester of their entry-level master's program complete.
3. 3.0/4.0 cumulative GPA (or equivalent) at the time of application.
4. Must be an IATA member since January of the application year.

Required Application Materials

1. Official Application Form
2. 2 Recommendation Forms
3. Unofficial Transcript from CAATE-Accredited program
4. Copy of NATA Membership Card, or IATA Membership
5. Verification of NPI number

Application Procedure

Any IATA student member who meets the above listed criteria may forward the required application materials to the IATA by March 1st by email at kwilliams@thecorydongroup.com

Selection Process

1. The IATA-hired consulting firm, The Corydon Group, will forward the fully completed applications to the IATA Scholarship Committee.
2. Each application will be reviewed by the scholarship committee, and provided to Committee Chair.
3. Once a selection is made, the IATA Executive Council officially notifies the winner at least one week following verification by the Executive Council at the soonest general business meeting.
4. All non-selected applicants will be notified via email.

Recognition

Scholarship winner will be recognized at the annual Awards Ceremony.

Dwayne "Spike" Dixon

Dwayne "Spike" Dixon was a fixture for 26 years in Indiana University's athletic training department beginning in 1946. In 1961 he began to focus on teaching athletic training skills and developing curricula. In addition to his lectures, classes, consulting and athletic training duties, Spike wrote "The Dictionary of Training Techniques." He is credited as the first athletic trainer to use cryotherapy in 1952. He also provided athletic training services to many special groups, including the U.S. Air Force, the U.S. Olympic Team and the Indiana North-South All-Star Football Games. Spike served as District Four Director (1954 – 1955) and is a NATA Hall of Fame member (1970).
